AMUSEMENTS.

The sale of seats for the engagement of Roland Reed at the Grand Opera House for fair week will begin to-morrow morning at the Pembroke Arcade. Mr. Reed will be seen during his engagement in two of his "The Wrong Mr. Wright." The former will be given Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights, and at the matinees Tuesday and Thursday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee the latter will constitute the bill.

"Sinbad," which comes next week to English's, is conceded to be the best of those glittering extravanganzas produced under the management of David Henderson, which in all the largest cities of the country for the past ten years have placed him foremost among all the producers of this class of work in the country. The piece has been given at Henderson's own theater in Chicago for over twelve months, in New York eight months, in San Francisco over three months, in Boston three months, and in Philadelphia nearly four months. Besides it has been given in Pittsburg six weeks, and played to the largest receipts ever played to in that city by any company outside of grand opera. In Cincinnati and St. Louis "Sinbad" has made similar recerds. The advance sale will open to-morrow at the Pembroke. Tony Pastor and his people are enter-taining a house full twice a day at the Park. Theater parties are finding the company a pleasant diversion. It is clean and an ex-cellent example of first-class vaudeville. For fair week the Park will have a play entirely new to Indianapolis-"A Romance of Ceon Hollow." It is away above the average drama as a play, as well as in respect to company and scenery.

The clean and clever performance of the Roof Garden Company at the Empire continues to draw, Mile. Rialta's electric fire dance eliciting generous applause. Sey-mour's Gay New Yorkers occupy the theater fair week. It will be a combination of vaudeville, burlesque and farce-comedy and is said to be bright and lively.

Greenfield's New Opera House. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENFIELD, Ind., Sept. 8 .- Gant's new opera house was opened last night. The opera house has just been completed by W. S. Gant, and is first class in every respect. It has one of the largest and best stages in the State, and is seated with 800 opera-house chairs, but 400 more can be seated for a political meeting or general gathering. It is such a building as the city has needed for years.

BROKE EVEN YESTERDAY. Saints Were Given the First Game and Hoosiers Won the Second.

pecial to the Indianapolis Journal. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 8. - The Saints finished the season on the home grounds to-day by breaking even on two games with Indianapolis. Both were good exhibitions of baseball, and a casual spectator would not have known that the two teams were the same ones that played yesterday. The locals won the first game, in spite of the fact that Fisher was in the box. In fact, it may be said that Fisher gave the game away. In the eighth inning, with the score three to one in favor of the visitors. Fisher gave Burns a base on balls purposely rather than take chances of his hitting the ball. Burns's free base filled the bags. Krauss was the next man up, and he drove the first ball pitched over the fence for a home run, scoring four and winning the game. Fisher pitched good ball. He kept the few hits which he allowed well scattered, except in the eighth inning. Several times good hits would have scored runs, but he refused to allow the ball to go outside of the diamond. The visitors played an errorless game in the field, and Hogan and McCarthy did some almost sensational work. Larry Twitchell did the umpiring and was very bad. He made at least a dozen decisions on the bases that any one could see were wrong. In the second inning he made a very bad decision on first base, and Hogriever told him that he was drunk. He was at once fined and put out of the game, Kellum going to the field. The visitors scored one run in the third inning on a bunt which Hogan beat to first, a single by Fisher, a sacrifice by hannon and a pretty steal over the plate. In the seventh two more were scored. After Motz's out on a fly, Hollingsworth juggled Shiebeck's grounder and he scored on a long three-base drive by Stewart. Wood rolled the ball across the diamond and Stewart was called out at the plate, although he was safe a foot. Wood took second on a wild pitch, third on a passed ball and scored on an error by O'Rourke. The Saints scored one in the third on three clean singles and five in the eighth on two bases on balls, three singles, a sacrifice, a two-bagger and Krauss's home run. Score of first game: St. Paul. The second game went to the visitors, the score being six to four. It was a pretty game from start to finish, and was anybody's until the last man was retired. Cross was in the box for the visitors and pitched good ball. Phyle went in to pitch for the locals, but '.e gave the first three men up bases on balls without pitching a strike, and then retired in favor of Denzer. The latter pitched well throughout, but could not win his game. Hogan, Shannon and Krauss carried off the honors of the game. The former did wonderful work in center field, retiring six men on flies, two of them being sensational catches. Shannon had seven chances and accepted them all without a skip. He made one or two stops of hard-hit balls which were as pretty as were ever made on a ball field. Mullane missed a chance to complete a triple play in the first inning, with three men on bases. Motz lined a ball to Krauss, who caught it and sent it to Hollingsworth, on second, who in turn threw to first. The ball went straight into Mullane's hands, but he dropped it. His man was a dozen feet off the base and would have easily been put out but for the fumble. The visitors scored their first run in the third inning. Shannon hit for two bases and scored on a single by Motz.

In the fourth, doubles by Stetwart and Wood gave the visitors another. Wood's homer in the sixth inning was the third, the other three were scored in the Baseball Notes.

Anderson's twenty-one put-outs out twenty-seven at first base for Brooklyn in he Louisville game of Aug. 26 is the record of the season. Patsy Tebeau is quoted as saying that if

has-been all he need do is to turn him over to Cleveland. "I haven't made much of a record for myself this season, but I lead the pitchers of the League in warming up," says Al Maul, of Washington.

After to-day's game at St. Paul Wat-kins's men will start for home. They play Milwaukee here Friday and Saturday, Kansas City follows next Monday. Sixty-seven runs in four games is the ecord made by the Bostons against Louis, and two of the contests were not played to the limit on account of darkness. On the grounds of the Central Insane hospital a game of ball was played yester-day between the C. I. H. Club and the Indianapolis Reserves, resulting in the defeat of the Reserves by a score of 12 to 6. The features of the game was the battery work and the heavy-hitting in the eighth and ninth inning by the C. I. H. Just eighty-four people attended the St. Paul-Indianapolis game Labor day morn-ing. For the afternoon game less than one usand turned out. At Indianapolis year ago Monday three thousand people saw the champions play in the morning and 7,193 paid to see the afternoon game. That is the difference between this city and St. Paul. The Indianapolis papers have given up all hope of landing the pennant and are now content that Minneapolis should fly the flag-nit. The Indianapolis papers may have abandoned the fight, but the Indian-apolis players have not. The players are a never-quit lot and will be found fight-ing as hard at the windup as when they were struggling for first place.-Columbus Press.

Triple Play by Senators. WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 .- A triple play was the feature of the two games between St. Louis and Washington to-day. In the first game Dowd led off with a hit for two bags and Sullivan singled, advancing him to third. Turner sent a low liner to Smith, who caught the ball when almost prostrate and retired the batter. Before rising he Dave Foutz considers Tommy McCarthy a touched the bag and Dowd was caught playing off third. Smith then threw to Cartwright, who caught Sullivan as he was starting to second on the play. Kissinger was hit freely in the first game and errors helped to give the game to the Senators. In the second Norton pitched better ball than Hart, who was somewhat wild. The Washington management again attached the gate receipts of the St. Louis club. The difficulty originated in the sale of the Cincinnati Brotherhood team to the League some years ago. Attendance, 2,000. Scores: First game: R. H. Colts Won on Quakers' Errors. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8 .- Poor fielding at critical moments cost the Quakers todry's game. A wild throw by Boyle and a fumble by Hulen were responsible for three runs in the first and Hulen's second fumlle in the third cost another run. Anson's three bagger in the second should have been an out but for Hulen's apparent inattention to t e game. It brought in two runs. And Was Late to School in Consequence, but Got No Black Mark. New York Evening Sun.

A Brooklyn woman who is the wife of a prominent member of the New York Proluce Exchange tells a pretty little story of Lincoln's journey East prior to his inauguration as President. She was then a slip of a girl going to school in Jersey City. She had never seen Lincoln and when the day came that he would reach Jersey City she went to the station. It was early in the morning, and she thought she could see the coming President and get to school before the doors were closed at 9 o'clock. With the crowd she waited.

The clock was pointing at ten minutes to 9, and she said to herself: "I will wait only MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 8.—At the National Circuit race meet at Varick Park this afternoon Tom Butler, of Cambridge-port, Mass., won the one-half mile open professional in 1:64%. Attendance, 3,500.

him, tall, thin and gaunt-looming above the crowd. The cheering continued, when somehow she again caught sight of the station

Five minutes after 9 it pointed, and she started. Off she ran, excitement at seeing the great man and nervousness and fear of punishment mingled. The school reached, she found the doors standing wide open, and she thought "perhaps they have-n't opened school yet and I can get in quietly and no one will notice." She slow-ly pushed the school room door open, and there was the room with all the scholars assembled-no one missing but herself-and with the principal standing apparently waiting.

"Come here," said the principal, and the girl walked through the aisle to the front of the school. 'Mary, where have you been?" came the question abruptly.
"I have been to see Lincoln," was the nervous reply.

"Did you see him?"

"Yes, sir."

"Shake hands. I wish I had seen him, too." was the unexpected rejoinder, and the embarrassed and blushing little girl and the big principal gravely shook hands.

Greenfield Track Fast. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENFIELD, Ind., Sept. 8.-The Greenfield fair began to-day with bright prospects. Never before has there been so large a number of entries in all departments, the ladies' department being especially full. The various events for the races have all been filled with a fine class of horses with records, and as they are rather evenly matched, and the track is fast, some good racing is expected. The agricultural and fruit products were never so abundant nor of such great size and fine quality. The racing Wednesday includes the 3:00 trot, 2:22 pace and 2:35 trot. The stands, shows and fakirs are numerous. Pretty Fight on for the Indianapolis

Medals.

The third race meet of the Capital City Cycle Club will be held this evening at the track near the fair grounds. The programme will consist of five events. All of the local riders, with the exception of Craig, are entered. The fight for the Indianapolis championship medal is waxing warm. Under the conditions made by the club the medal, which is valued at $100, will become the property of the Indianapolis rider who wins the greatest number of first prizes on the Capital City track during the present season. Alex. Craig is now in the lead, having won two firsts at the opening meet of the club. At the last meet Jacob Stienmetz won first place in the race for the medal and he is very anxious to even up Craig's record. Tom David. who did some sensational riding at the meet Monday at Broad Ripple, has not yet had a chance to get into the fight, but this evening he is entered against Stienmetz in the same race and there will be a lively scramble between the two. While David carried off nearly all the honors on the Broad Ripple track Monday, he was hard pushed in several of the races by Stienmetz. and the latter says that he can go faster on a five-lap track than the winner of Mon-day's races. There is no love lost between these two men and any race in which they are entered means a fight from start to

Taylor, the colored rider who did such sensational work on the track last Wednesevening, will give another exhibition this evening. He claims that he can make a track record of two minutes on a five-lap track, and is going to make an effort to do it. Everything is in Taylor's favor for his trial. He is in the pest of condition and has been steadily practicing during the past week. He is a little rider and rides close to his wheel. This enables him to make the turns in good style, and he does not have to lose any time in taking the outside of the track. Taylor says that it is simply a question of pacing, and, if the men in front of him go fast enough, he will break all records for a five-lap track. He will also go an unpaced fifth to beat his own record of :23 3-5, made last Wednes-

The transportation facilities will be much better than any of the other meets. T street railway company has promised five-minute service. There was a good deal of complaint on this score at the last meet and many people who wished to attend the meet were unable to do so. The club will give a big race meet next week during the State fair. Races will be held Wednesday Thursday and Friday evenings, and all of be here. Manager Clemens has sent out entry blanks and several prominent riders who have met the local cracks in competition this season from other towns have written that they will be here. One fea-ture of the meet next week will be three match races between Taylor and A. S. Stewart, of St. Louis, who styles himself the champion colored rider of the world.

The Y. M. C. A.'s Work. Henry H. Wikel has been secured as physical director of the Young Men's Christian Association in this city to succeed P. L. Foss, who died in Minneapolis Aug. 17. Mr. Wikel began his present career as physical director of the association at Worcester, Mass., then taking a similar position at Louisville, and for the past two years has been instructor in the Association Training School, Chicago, having charge of the physical work in one of the branches in that city, and more recently being associate physical director of the central department there, on LaSalle street, where the association has a thirteen-story $1,500,000 building. He came to this city a few days ago to look over the ground and has completed the contract with the local board. Mrs. Wikel has joined him. During the month of September he is devoting much time to physical examinations of candidates for the nasium classes for the coming season, be-sides devoting a number of hours to instruction in swimming in the natatorium, which has been attracting such large crowds of men and boys during the last two or three months. Classes are being planned to accommodate business men. The registered classes for gymnasium work will be opened in a few weeks. The practical talks by leading physicians will be continued this year, and a class in first aid to the injured will be an important feature.

The "gaslight college," as the association evening educational classes are termed, there having been an enrollment of over 20,000 young men in these classes in this country last year, is an important part of the local work, and gives the young men employed in the factory and shop an op-portunity to gain an education. This season's lecture course will be presented in one of the opera houses on account of the Philadelphia Press. The City Troop pranced ahead as escort, the procession of carriages trailed out like a huge black serpent and the Mayor began to talk to the Earl. The former had warn-ing from the experience of others. He had the data regarding his age and his income jotted on his cuff. This was to assure agreement in his stories. The parley opened with generalities about the weather, wishes for mutual good health and an exchange of compliments. Then came the

"How old are you?"
"Not so young as I hope your Excellency feels," and the Mayor murmured, "One for

"Yes, very rich; oh, yes, indeed."
The Mayor said later that no Chinese vicercy could look down on him while words were cheap. "How much do you get a year?" The question mill was clanking famously

"As Mayor, my official salary is $12,000."
"Is that more than the Mayor of New York receives?" "What do you do when you are not busy as Mayor?"

"I practice law."
"Do you? I like lawyers, and I like you," said the Viceroy, placing one hand on Mayor Warwick's shoulder.
